2023-07-01	2023-24	DS-Add	Effective July 1, 2022, the Department of Children and Families ceased identifying the specific exemption type for students placed in the custody of a relative or non-relative, which were previously captured through table values B and Q. These exemptions are still effective; however, they are now grouped into one table value - Table Value 5. Table Value 5 also includes a third exemption that was added during the 2022 legislative session for dependent children placed in permanent guardianship under s. 39.6221, F.S. This table value reflects how the Department of Children and Families measures fee exemptions granted to children placed in custody of relatives or non-relatives.	New note containing information on changes in identification by Department of Children and Families.
